Counsel Opposing Miller Bill Ask Parliamentary Committee of Inquiry to Recommend

English Statute of 1906.

Ottawa, Ont., March 8.—The written argument by counsel for the various jockey clubs of Canada has been submitted to members of the special parliamentary committee that heard evidence for and against the Miller anti-bookmaking bill. Fifty pages of a printed pamphlet are devoted to an analysis of the facts adduced by the inquiry, the report being signed by F. E. Meredith and Anne Geoffrey, for the Montreal Jockey Club; Leighton McCarthy, for the Ottawa Jockey Club; J. L. Connel, for the Hamilton Jockey Club, and J. H. Moss, for the breeding interests.

They submit that the committee should report back to the house a bill based on the British statute of 1906, which would suppress street betting and hand-book making, but which exempts race courses on race days from the operation of the act. It is suggested that race meetings should be limited to periods of twelve days, not more than twice a year on any track, and with an interval of at least twenty days. The argument points out that Rev. Dr. Shearer, a paid secretary of the Moral Reform Council, is responsible for the alleged public agitation in the matter, all of which is manufactured and fictitious. Because of his ignorance of the facts and conditions he has caused different bodies to assent to recitals which are declared to be utterly untrue and misleading.

The argument pleads that the proposed bill of Mr. Miller would create worse instead of better conditions, and that it is impracticable and un-British. The committee is expected to favor a remodeled bill on the lines of the English act, but it is quite possible that the committee's report may not reach Parliament at all, as the house program is to close up business and prorogue by Easter, March 27. This would leave the situation the same as in the past.

WINTER RACERS REACH NEW YORK.

New York, March 8.—Horses and horsemen are beginning to put in an appearance from the south and southwest. James Blute, Thomas Mannix and Max Hirsch have arrived from Juarez, where the Mexican Jockey Club has recently closed. Jones and Joe Jones are here from Jacksonville. Jones did not bring his horses along. He left them at Moncreif Park in the charge of his foreman, but will order them shipped north at once.

James Blute, whose stable from Juarez is quartered at Gravesend, brought home eight racers of various ages, including the Star Shoot colt, Enfield. Blute's horses are a bit faded because of their hard campaign at Juarez or they would have gone to Pimlico to prepare for the Maryland Jockey Club's spring meeting.

The star of Max Hirsch's string is Charlie Hargrave, the Solitaire II. colt that lamed himself at Juarez on the eve of the running of the Derby. This race fell to German Silver, which came home with a lame leg. Hirsch confirms the statement made by Samuel C. Austin to the effect that Charlie Hargrave's injury is not as serious as was reported from El Paso the day the Solitaire II. colt was formally declared out of the Derby. Hirsch says Hargrave's lameness is already abating and the colt shipped satisfactorily. Hirsch expects to have him ready to fill his engagements at Belmont Park, the best of which are in the Metropolitan Handicap and the Withers Stakes. After the Belmont Park meeting Charlie Hargrave will be prepared for the Brooklyn Handicap, in which W. S. Vosburgh assigned him 93 pounds. The Solitaire II. colt's impost in the Suburban is also 93 pounds.

Mannix says that German Silver's victory in the Derby was a dead end and that the Oranmont three-year-old is in fine condition. Mannix does not have any idea he has a first-class handicap horse in German Silver, but the son of Oranmont likes a mile and muddy and is a good runner. Mannix rarely misses the Maryland Jockey Club's races when he has anything that can run.

ED BALL'S NEW LEASE OF LIFE.

Ed Ball, ten-year-old chestnut gelding by Verge d'Or—Niobe, is racing in California this winter with a degree of success that is remarkable for such a veteran of the race track. He is in a fair way to make this the banner year of a long and useful career on the track, extending back to his two-year-old season in 1902. Since January 1 of the present year he has won no less than seven races out of eleven starts at Oakland and since he is now a member of the stable of that exceptionally skillful trainer, H. C. Redwell, it is reasonable to expect that he will add to his excellent record ere the Oakland meeting comes to an end next month. The old horse seems equally at home on any kind of a track and his racing record to date is as follows:

Ed Ball, ch. g. (1900), by Verge d'Or—Niobe.	Year.	Age.	Sts.	1st.	2d.	3d.	Unp.	Won.
1902	2	8	1	0	2	5	5	250

1910	10	16	7	0	2	2	2	1,530
Totals (9)	149	43	19	23	64	17,097

Another veteran that has shown winning form at Oakland this winter is Rapid Water, recently sold by S. C. Hildreth to R. J. Mackenzie and subsequently claimed from the latter by Allen & Hensley. Rapid Water is now a nine-year-old and has the following excellent record to show for his eight seasons on the turf:

Rapid Water, b. h. (1901), by Rapallo—Water Girl.	Year.	Age.	Sts.	1st.	2d.	3d.	Unp.	Won.
1903	2	14	5	1	4	4	4	3,230

FIFTY-EIGHT YEARLINGS AT CASTLETON.

Algernon Daingerfield Talks Interestingly of What He Saw on Visit to James R. Keene's Stud.

New York, March 8.—Algernon Daingerfield, assistant secretary of the Jockey Club, has just returned from a visit to Kentucky, and is quoted as follows:

"From successes achieved on the metropolitan race courses during the past few years it is but natural that the first visit of a New Yorker in Kentucky should be to Castleton, the nursery of all the famous horses that have carried the white, blue spots to victory in almost every important race of the east. At Castleton I found in the stud sires, Ben Brush, Peter Pan, Disguise, Colt, Superman, Delhi, Hippodrome, Kingston and the young horse, Ultimus. Both Hippodrome and Ultimus need a word of introduction to the New York racegoer, which will follow later.

"Voter is possibly premier sire of this truly wonderful establishment. His racing record and the success of his sons and daughters are too fresh in the minds of the public for him to need comment or praise, and if reports from the stable at Sheepshead Bay are true, at least one of both sexes of his two-year-olds are top-notchers.

"Ben Brush is sturdy and well, and this 'sire without a number' is as highly prized by all Kentuckians as any horse in America.

"Disguise is one of the finest most thoroughbred-looking horses in existence. Major Daingerfield tells me he already is the sire of the best colt of his year, as he was of the best filly of 1907-08.

"Delhi's first crop will be seen at the races this year, and there are indications that they will be seen in front. He has been furnished down and may be described as a lovely horse.

"Peter Pan, one of the greatest race horses the writer has ever seen, is simply wonderful. He has filled out, let down, and is grand in all proportions. He grows more and more like his sire, the mighty Commando.

"Kingston, like the man who has lived well his three score years and ten, is now enjoying the rest he is entitled to by his successes on the track and at the stud.

"Hippodrome, by Commando, out of Dominoes (both by Domino), is the biggest in girth, deepest in bristlet and most powerfully constructed horse imaginable. He broke a leg as a weanling, consequently has no turf career. He has two colts and two fillies, now yearlings, on the farm. One, a half-brother to Colt, won the capital prize at the Lexington fair, carrying a season to Rock Sand ($1,500) in the largest and best field of yearlings ever exhibited at Lexington. The filly took second in the filly class and the colt and filly exhibited together won the blue ribbon in the sweep for two best by one sire in a ring to which weanlings, yearlings and two-year-olds were eligible—Hippodrome having nothing older than foals of 1909.

"Ultimus is a young horse by Commando (his last colt), out of Running Stream. He will be mated with a few mares in 1910. He is very muscular and handsome and was fleet as a bullet. This horse was one of the stable secrets. His trials as a two-year-old were truly wonderful.

"At the farm I saw fifty-eight yearlings. Of the colts my first choice must be the bay colt by Ben Brush, out of Running Stream, a well-balanced, compact colt of fine size and strength, and surely a right horse. He is the oldest of this really admirable lot of youngsters.

"My next choice is the chestnut colt by Hippodrome—Maid of Erin, a truly grand-looking colt, two and a half months younger; but where all look good, the difference in appearance when in their first year is, so early as the first of March, much a matter of age, and I desist from further comparison of the colts.

The Voter—Ecaterina filly, a brown, is very beautiful, and between this filly and the filly by Hippodrome—Editha the choice of most horsemen would probably lie. The black filly by Peter Pan—Biturica (dam of Maskette) is a grand, big filly, as is also the bay filly by the same horse, out of Rosegarland.

LEGISLATIVE MOVEMENT IN CALIFORNIA.

San Francisco, Cal., March 8.—The new organization of California horsemen formed to seek legislative relief from the oppressive provisions of the Walker-Otis law, will be known as the California Harness and Stock Breeders' Association.

A. L. Scott, of San Francisco, was unanimously chosen president for the year and the following men, representing all sections of the state, divide the other honors: First vice-president, George L. Warlow, of Fresno; second vice-president, W. A. Clark, Jr., of Los Angeles; third vice-president, S. B. Wright, of Santa Rosa; treasurer, F. L. Mathers, of San Francisco; secretary, W. J. Kenny, of San Francisco. The committee on constitution and by-laws is as follows: Senator Rush, of Suisun, Dr. Ira Dalziel, of San Francisco, S. B. Wright, of Santa Rosa, G. L. Warlow, of Fresno, F. L. Mathers, of San Francisco, and F. J. Sinclair, of San Francisco.

The following preamble was enthusiastically adopted by the convention at which the association was launched:

"We, horsemen and stock breeders of California, being aware of the great benefit bound to accrue to us from united action in the matter of legislation and otherwise, do hereby associate ourselves together for the purpose of fostering our particular interests where possible, obtaining favorable legislation, righting wrongs and guarding with zealous care every feature of the horse industry.

"We believe that proper recognition of our rights can only be continually secured by such organization, and that by it all claims for consideration, emanating from an authoritative source representative of our industry, will alone secure such benefits for it as we believe it to be justly entitled to.

"We believe further that such organization will strengthen a deserving cause, state wide in its interests, and enable it to obtain such legislation as is required to insure the active growth and development of such interests and to the benefit of all concerned in this organization."

PATSY SUCCUMBS TO PNEUMONIA.

P. S. P. Randolph's good racer, Patsy, yesterday succumbed at Jacksonville to the effects of pneumonia, with which he was stricken shortly after his victory in the New Year Handicap at Moncreif Park. Patsy had an unbeaten record at Jacksonville, having won the Palm Beach Handicap, St. Augustine Handicap and an overnight purse prior to his New Year Handicap success. He was considered an especially promising prospect for eastern racing this year and his death removes an interesting factor from the big spring handicaps, in each of which he had been assigned 103 pounds. The record of the horse is as follows:

Patsy, b. g. (1906), by Peep o'Day—Pink.	Year.	Age.	Sts.	1st.	2d.	3d.	Unp.	Won.
1908	2	6	0	0	0	0	0	6
1909	3	15	9	3	2	1	1	14,885
1910	4	1	1	0	0	0	0	1,355

CORRECTION OF DICTION'S ODDS.

The correct odds against Diction in race 88389 at Jacksonville, Monday, were 6-5 opening and closing, 1-2 place and 1-4 show.

PARKVIEW LONE WINNING FAVORITE.

Tampa First Choices Run Disappointingly—Judge Dunne to Resume Training.

Tampa, Fla., March 8.—Parkview, a one-time crack on the New York tracks, was the only winning favorite at the Tampa Bay track this afternoon. In view of the fact that the mare had not earned brackets in almost two years considerable surprise was occasioned by the short price offered against her. Liberal out-of-town commissions accounted for it. The mare showed a flash of her old-time form by sprinting into a commanding lead from the start, and her early advantage, coupled with the poor handling that F. Lewis gave Billie Hibbs, enabled her to hold sway throughout and win by a comfortable margin. Today's evenly-balanced card served to make the picking of winners a difficult task and the public had considerably the worse of it at the close. Goldsmith and Flora Riley, the best-backed favorite of the afternoon, suffered defeat mainly because of poor handling accorded them by D. Murphy. Murphy would have won with Goldsmith but for getting rattled with the race well in hand. Goldsmith succumbed in the last few strides to Masks and Faces. Flora Riley lost because she was steered into numerous pockets.

Carondelet failed to land a place in the fourth race, for which he was an overwhelming choice. Brookline was downed in handy fashion by Pio Pico in the second. The winner met with a peculiar misfortune after the start when one of his hind shoes was torn off and became entangled in his tail, where it was found after the finish.

J. B. Brannon, of Memphis, Tenn., half-brother of Jockey Brannon, who has been riding at the Tampa track, is bringing the law to his aid in trying to take the boy away from Tampa. Brannon tried to take the boy to Jacksonville with him some days ago, but when he got to the train, he alleges, the boy gave him the slip, and since that time has been hiding from him.

The case of Dr. Mackenzie against G. R. Bryson, affecting the ownership of six two-year-olds that are racing at the local track, came up this morning in the Circuit Court, but was postponed on account of the absence of attorneys in the case. Dr. Mackenzie claims to have furnished the money for the purchase of the youngsters and turned them over to Bryson to be trained, which is denied by Bryson.

After the finish of the fifth race, C. Houser, owner of a colt named Autumn Girl for $850, and John and William Shields will ship their strings to Jamestown at the close of the present meeting.

Presiding Judge Dunne will go to New York after the close of the Tampa meeting to take up his string of racers, including The Peer, now in Peter Winner's care.

GOSSIP FROM KENTUCKY TRAINING GROUNDS.

Louisville, Ky., March 8.—Of the twenty-nine entries that were qualified for the Kentucky Derby by the second payment of $30, nine are already quartered at Churchill Downs. They are Waldo, Captain Morris, Belluf, Don Antonio, Charles F. Grainger, The Flying Bob, Tule, and J. C. Ferriss. As Waldo will not race before the running of the big race, the crack two-year-old of 1909 will face the barrier in the Derby with 117 pounds up, he getting the allowance of five pounds given non-winners of a three-year-old race of the value of $1,000. The last four winners of the race, Sir Huiot, Pink Star, Stone Street and Wintergreen, won with 117 pounds up. Aggie, in 1905, carried 122 pounds to victory, but in the nine previous races colts weighed at 117 pounds or less. The weights were first raised to 122 pounds when Kingman won the race in 1891. Aristides, the first winner in 1875, carried 100 pounds, and the scale of weights remained exceedingly low until 1884.

J. B. Respass, string of twelve horses that raced all winter at Juarez, Mex., and J. C. Ferriss' stable of horses from the same place, arrived at Churchill Downs last night and are now quartered at that track. Ferriss brought his good filly, Delf, and Ed Alvey's two horses, Pinkola and Colonel Bob, and the well as the Respass collection, all shipped well.

A. L. Kirby, trainer of the Respass stable, did not come with the horses, having stopped on the way at San Antonio to spend a couple of weeks with relatives. Until he arrives here, Frank Respass, who has the other branch of the Respass stable in charge, will look after all the horses. Their arrival swells the strength of the Respass stable in training here to thirty-one head.

John Marklein has brought Pal and Beau Brummel from the farm and now has these two selling platters in training quarters at Churchill Downs. Pal was fired at Latonia last fall and is rather thin in flesh, but Beau Brummel looks unusually good and will undoubtedly do a lot of good racing this year. Marklein has rounded W. A. Leach around nicely and he shows no effects at present of a mishap that befell him in his last race at Juarez. Upon that occasion he threw a plate and strained himself rather seriously, he being a horse that is an accident of that kind strangely affected. The famous trainer's good mare, Lady Esther, and The Royal Prince are the two horses in his barn that are in the pink of condition. Said he yesterday:

"I won five races at Juarez with Lady Esther and should have won eight with good racing luck. She is as nice a door as I ever trained." Marklein is in love with Mexico as a winter racing ground. "I will be there next winter," he declares, "and I am going to start right in and study the Spanish language so that I can be as accomplished and polite as the fine people I met there. One thing only was I disappointed in that country and that was on account of what I had heard about the silvery Rio Grande in song and story. I imagined it would give the Mississippi and the Andes a close run for the money. Take a look at Beargrass Creek and you have seen the Rio Grande as I saw it."

Trainer Pete Coyne had an addition to his string in the five-year-old chestnut horse, Macias, by Falsetto—Sevilla. Macias has been running out for some time at Bashford Manor Farm, and his owner, George J. Long, thinks he will now train sound. One of his last good races was in the fall of his three-year-old form when he ran a good third at Lexington to The Minks and Old Honesty, beating out King's Daughters and Baldur. He barely beat him in a well-run mile at that meeting, and if he comes back to the races this year as good as he then was, he will win purses for the Long stable. He is rugged looking at present, but is in nice flesh and in good condition to go into training.

Fred Luzader, after getting the J. R. Wainwright horses comfortably quartered at Churchill Downs after their long trip from Mexico, made a trip to Latonia to visit his family, upon returning from which he will begin spring training in earnest. The buying of Gallant Pirate by J. R. Wainwright from W. J. Young, leaves the latter trainer without a Kentucky Derby candidate in his string at Douglas Park. Luzader thinks he has a nice colt in Gallant Pirate and will give the son of Pirate of Penzance a careful preparation for the big race. He looks for Dr. Waldo Briggs to improve as he takes on age and believes distance will ultimately cut no figure with the Missouri-bred horse. Al Muller is also looking good and shows no signs of lameness at present.

The declaration of Topland and The End from the Suburban Handicap is taken as an indication that C. C. Van Meter will attempt no eastern invasion this year until after the Latonia meeting.

TABOO AGAIN IN GOOD FORM

USEFUL FILLY TAKES MEASURE OF GOOD

OPPOSITION AT MONCREIF.

Return of Pleasant Weather Finds Jacksonville Race Attendance Augmented—Well-Backed

Second Choices Successful.

Jacksonville, Fla., March 8.—The return of pleasant weather and a fast track brought an increase in the attendance at Moncreif Park today. A good crowd turned out and some keen sport was witnessed. Favorites and well-backed second choices won four of the races, while Taboo and De Kalb scored as outsiders. Both of these horses came from the rear division in the homestretch. De Kalb took a circuitous route and went much farther than any horse in his race. In a grueling drive he just managed to get up to beat Takahira a head. The latter showed a great flight of speed but faltered at the end. Taboo beat a band of good horses in the fourth race and won going away. This filly will be hard to beat at Pimlico.

The stable that W. P. Kuchen has been racing here, left for New York tonight. Jockey King accompanied Kuchen back to New York and will report on his arrival to F. D. Weir, the far west arrived. P. S. P. Randolph's good handicap horse, Patsy, which died today after lingering along for several weeks after a second attack of pneumonia, had been kept alive the past week or ten days on raw eggs and milk.

Peter Van Cott, who was employed by George Rose at Juarez, was an arrival this morning. The stable of J. L. Brannon also got in from the same place. A. P. Doyle's horses arrived from Savannah, where they were wintered.

J. B. RESPASS LOSES GOOD BROODMARE.

Louisville, Ky., March 8.—J. B. Respass sustained a serious loss recently in the death of the good race mare and stud matron, Charm, by Faustus—Minnie Payne. When George C. Bennett sold out his Tennessee Ridgeway Stud at Lexington in November, 1907, Barney Schreiber chartered an automobile in Lexington to drive to Louisville to buy Charm. The Missouri turfman's train from the far west arrived here that morning, too late to make connections for the blue grass capital, and to reach there in time for the sale he had to motor. He got to Lexington that afternoon about 2:30 o'clock, but the mare had passed under the hammer and Mr. Respass got her at a bargain, as other buyers did not believe she was in foal. Schreiber that night offered Mr. Respass $500 profit on the mare and increased the tender to $1,000 before he left Lexington, but the owner of Dick Welles turned down the offers. He told Mr. Schreiber that he might just as well talk about a $5,000 profit; that the mare was off the market and he was pleased to know he owned a stud matron so highly regarded by the breeder of Jack Atkin.

The two turfmen finally compromised the case by Respass tendering a gift season to Dick Welles, and the Missouri breeder returned the compliment by presenting the Kentuckyian with a season to Sain. Charm raced as a three, four and five-year-old and won a total of sixteen races. Her foals were: Cadet, winner as a two and four-year-old; King's Charm, winner as a three and four-year-old; Lucky Charm, winner for four seasons, and the high-class stake winner, Terrell and Tallac, both of which are year-old chestnut colts now in training at Churchill Downs in the Respass stable that is a brother to Ethon.

NEWSY ITEMS FROM THE COAST.

San Francisco, Cal., March 8.—Among the foals to arrive recently at California breeding farms, John D. Millin reports a colt by St. Avonius out of Isolation, a Hermit mare. At El Palomar, Charles Clark's country estate, two youngsters have arrived and both are by that good horse, Ostler Joe. A sister to Cloudlight, by Bright Phoebus—Lovelight, is the dam of one and Tallac and Ethon, the other, and Wilma, the dam of Sal Atticum, have been sent to Oakwood Stock Ranch for mating with Salvation.

George Berry has a four-year-old maiden called Unco, by Solitaire II.—Querida that has been figuratively burning the track at Oakland in morning work. Berry wants to make a jumper out of him and says that he gives indication of being a good one over the sticks. He has been nominated for the eastern stakes race fixtures and will be named for others yet to close.

The Oakland police have arrested Manuel Jacobs for alleged violation of the Walker-Otis law in taking cash bets on the Oakland races outside the racing enclosure.

Hugh Springer, manager of the Vancouver meeting, was a recent visitor at the Oakland track and said that there will be no announcements in British Columbia turf matters until Parliament decides the fate of racing in Canada.

Andy Blakeley and W. O'Brien expect to ship the best of their horses to New York about the last week of this month. They will sell some of the others at auction next Saturday. J. M. Shilling will ship W. T. Overton and Virgie Casse east in the car with the Blakeley stable.

GOOD PROSPECTS OF JAMESTOWN'S MEETING.

The coming spring meeting of the Jamestown Jockey Club, at Norfolk, Va., under the license of the Jockey Club, promises at last to place this splendid racing point, but an overnight trip from New York by water or rail, securely into its own. The dates, April 1 to 14, inclusive, have been fittingly selected, Benning, where horsemen were wont to fit their charges for the metropolitan races from the south, it will afford the horsemen returning from the south a stopping-off place en route to Pimlico and New York.

The mile oval, with its one-hundred-foot stretch and well-banked turns, is beautifully located, just outside of Norfolk, on the shore of Hampton Roads, and judging by the number of brackets scored on metropolitan race courses by horses on their return from the spring meeting at Jamestown last year, he was not far wrong.

With Ed Cole occupying the judges' stand, Mars Cassidy at the barrier and Fred Gerhardt acting as secretary, the meeting at once takes on an air of importance.

No less pretensions are the offerings to the horsemen. The Norfolk Handicap, for three-year-olds and over, to be run Saturday, April 9, is worth $1,000, and will prove a drawing card for horsemen returning to New York.

The cross-country enthusiasts will also have an lining at Jamestown, it being the intention of secretary Gerhardt to card six or seven races for the steeplechasers during the meeting.

FUTURE BETTING ON ENGLISH RACES.

Sir Martin Equal Second Choice with Minoru for City and Suburban—Lemberg Derby Favorite.

New York, March 8.—The first set of prices quoted by the future bookmakers on coming English turf events has been sent here by an English concern that has opened books on the Lincolnshire, the Grand National Steeplechase, the Great Metropolitan, the City and Suburban, the Kempton Park Great Jubilee Handicap and the Derby.

According to the firm's circular the leading choices for the Lincolnshire Handicap, one mile, which will be run on March 15, are Kakadu, 10 to 1 favorite; Desmond's Pride, 12 to 1; Arrammore, Canonite, Edmund and Fiscal War, each 14 to 1; Artisan, Cicerello, T'Anson, Mustapha and Vigilance, each 16 to 1. H. P. Whitney's Delirium and Persuade are at 20 to 1. Otto Madden's Wamba is at 25 to 1. August Belmont's Norman III. is a 33 to 1 shot.

For the Grand National Steeplechase, miles and $56 yards, which will be run on March 18, Cackler and Glenside are equal favorites at 12 to 1; Jerry M. and Judas are quoted at 14 to 1; Springbok, King of Scatlets and Jenkinstown at 16 to 1. Simon Pure, which won some good cross-country races here two years ago, is at 40 to 1, while Foxhall Keene's Precursor II. is at 66 to 1.

The City and Suburban Handicap, one mile and a quarter, will be run on April 20. Dean Swift is made favorite at 10 to 1, with King Edward's Minnow, last year's Derby winner, an equal second choice with the American colt, Sir Martin, at 12 to 1, though the royal colt is in receipt of two pounds from the Yankee. Next are Sunbright, Sir Bold and Dandypat, each at 14. Then come Arrammore, Bachelors' Bonds, Buckwheat, Canonite, Colonial, Land League, Mustapha and Valens, each at 16 to 1.

For the Great Jubilee Handicap, one mile and a quarter, scheduled for May 7, the favorite is Laugwin, at 12 to 1, with Minoru, Succor, Princess de Galles and Hayden at 14; Sir Martin, The Story, Symon's Pride and Christmas Daisy at 16, and 20 to 1 against each of the others.

The Derby, to be run on Wednesday, June 1, which is one of the heavy betting events, shows Lemberg favorite at 2 to 1, with Sir Martin, Admiral Hawke 8 to 1, Rochester and Greenback 12 to 1, Charles O'Malley and Tressady 16 to 1, H. P. Whitney's Sallie of Navarre colt and Maid of Corinth 20 to 1, Emperor Napoleon and Louigny 25 to 1.

COMMENT ON LATONIA CONDITIONS.

Much praise is being accorded the new Latonia management for the game display made in the announcement of stakes and purses for the spring meeting. So little was expected from Latonia that the announcement of the stakes sort of took turflies off their feet, especially when the liberal offerings were noted. It gave a good idea, up and take notice. Of course more than gameness is required. Money is an essential thing, and that is what the new management has. C. A. Tilles, who appears quite prominent in the proposed regeneration of racing in this vicinity, knows a thing or two about operating a racing plant, and so does John Hachmeister and Ed Maginn, the racing secretary. Mr. Tilles is a firm believer in the future of racing around Cincinnati. At least he and his associates are sure to give it a good try. They are not looking to make any money this spring, but expect to do better in the future. The race track itself will be run more economically than it has been in the past. It was then a part of a political machine, and naturally a great many people were taken care of on that score. The new regime played politics in St. Louis and got burned, and it is believed will keep hands off across the river.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

A SIRE BEYOND COMPETITION.

St. Simon was a wonderful and undefeated race horse, and he was also the most wonderful sire of turf history. In a striking way an English publication thus condense and presents the vast amount of money won by himself and his descendants, and the auction sale prices of the latter:

Races won by St. Simon..... 9 $ 23,283.75
Races won by St. Simon's stock 534 2,744,351.00
Races won by St. Simon's sons' stock 2,878 5,076,439.75
Races won by stock out of St. Simon mares..... 737 1,658,478.75
Stock by St. Simon sold and price..... 209 1,300,196.50
Stock by St. Simon and price..... 2,521 3,528,321.50
Classic races won by St. Simon's stock..... 17
This is up to the end of the racing season of 1909.

AUGUST BELMONT IS OPTIMISTIC.

Lexington, Ky., March 8.—August Belmont and his bride, formerly Eleanor Robinson, en route from Palm Beach, Fla., to New York, spent today at Nursery Stud Farm, Mr. Belmont expressed himself as well pleased with the appearance and condition of his horses, and seemed exceedingly optimistic as to the future of racing in New York.

The most recent foals at Nursery Stud are twin colts by Sanson from Miss Hanover, one of the mares purchased by superintendent Kane last fall. Trainer French Brooks, acting for Woodford Clay, today sold to E. Baxter the two-year-old bay filly by Knight Errant—Mindful, by Star Shoot.

Joekey J. Hicks has reported to T. C. McDowell and is exercising his horses at local tracks.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Bob Irving, an eastern bookmaker, died at New York Monday after a brief illness.

Racing secretary Ed Maginn will visit the Florida tracks for the purpose of interesting horsemen in the stakes of the Latonia Jockey Club, soon to close.

James Winkfield, colored American jockey, has staked to ride for an Austrian count at $8,000 a year. Winkfield has been riding for a Russian nobleman for several years at $6,000 a year. He has sailed for Vienna, where he will make his headquarters during his new engagement.
